“MONTI has a successful track record of over 30 years and is known worldwide for its MBX® and Bristle Blasting-technologies. MONTI’s founders built an amazing company and since joining MONTI in 2018, it has been my pleasure to build on the wonderful heritage of innovation and great products. Today, a team is bringing decades of global coatings industry experience to MONTI’s surface preparation technology. This experience and know-how support a new vision for MONTI with an expanded offering of products and services to the global coatings industry and beyond. Our partnership with Presserv will enable us to access other markets, expand our offering and support our clients through distinctive support. We are very excited to begin this new chapter”, says Drs. J.F. (Frits) Doddema, CEO of MONTI.

“MONTI is a unique company with a diversified product portfolio, well known by Presserv through their cooperation for many years. It is a European manufacturer with strong German roots and a history of developing innovative products with applications for many different industries. The combination of great products, a strong brand, and an expanding market opportunity is very attractive. We see a great value proposition in markets from both Presserv and MONTI, where asset owners are looking for safe, cost-efficient and environmentally sound solutions. In addition, by adding MONTI, we are partnering with a strong management team with a proven track record in the protective coatings industry and a history of building great businesses. The combined strength of our two companies, Presserv and MONTI, in this segment will create a unique platform to both, develop products and services to our segments in the everlasting fight against
